SABIS® is pleased to announce that the SABIS International School, Bath UK (SIS-UK) will be operating under the new name of Ashwicke Hall School, Bath, UK. The name change has been made to reflect the heritage and history of the Ashwicke Estate, which has been home to a SABIS® Network school since 1983.

Students completing Term 3 at the school in the 2015-16 academic year will continue to receive all correspondence under the name of SIS-UK. From Term 1 of the 2016-17 academic year, the school's name will officially be Ashwicke Hall School, Bath, UK. For marketing purposes, the school's new name will be phased into use starting in May 2016.

With the new name comes a new logo that depicts the iconic turret on the front corner of the main building, which is on the registry of historically significant buildings in the U.K.
